MIKE DOLAN NAMED TO LEAD BEST TRANSPORT AS PRESIDENT AND CEO

Former Kewill COO brings supply chain and transportation management industry experience to cloud-based TMS solution provider

Columbus, OH (June 3, 2013) – BestTransport, a leading provider of cloud-based Transportation Management (TMS) solutions, today announced the appointment of Mike Dolan as President and Chief Executive Officer. Dolan, former Chief Operating Officer at Kewill, will be responsible for the growth, positioning, and ultimate success of BestTransport.

News Facts

- As COO of Kewill, a leader in global trade and logistics solutions, Mr. Dolan realigned and brought the Americas operation to consistent profitability and delivered significant growth in the enterprise shipping market. Following a 2012 organizational restructuring he was given global responsibility for the shipping and transportation management of the business, one which sold to and supported a broad range of companies, spanning the mid-market to large, Tier 1 enterprises.
- Mr. Dolan’s long track record of success includes executive positions with both global and leading edge technology companies. Previous roles included Senior Vice President of Worldwide Operations at MAPICS, CEO of ThruPut Technologies, and Vice President of Professional Services at Pivotpoint. He brings significant expertise and leadership in sales development, operations management, and supply chain technologies.
- Dolan comes to BestTransport with several years’ experience with the company’s solutions, services and organization, having partnered with the company starting in 2010. He joined BestTransport in April 2013 as head of Sales and Marketing.

Supporting Quotes

- “Mike brings considerable experience in profitably growing a business and a team,” stated Jeff Doose, BestTransport’s Chairman. “He knows the Transportation Management space and the supply chain industry in general wonderfully well. More important, he is a natural leader with a strong customer focus and an unwavering commitment to quality and performance. We are very lucky to have Mike leading the company.”

- “I believe there are many good things that we will do together as I take the helm at Best,” said Dolan. “We will certainly continue to deliver high quality, cloud-based solutions in the Transportation Management market. We will also improve the processes within the company, expand into new markets, and continue to evolve our product footprint to satisfy the needs of our current and future customers. I am also passionate about quality and customer service, as well as ensuring that we have a top notch team in all areas of our business.”
